INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Board of Directors
MGM Financial Corp.
Las Vegas, Nevada

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of MCM Financial Corp. as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the related statements of operations, stockholder's equity and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of MCM Financial Corp. as of December 31, 2003 and 2002 and the results of its operations and cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements, taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I, II, III and IV is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements, but is supplemental information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects when considered in relation to the financial statements, taken as a whole.

MCM FINANCIAL CORP.NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2003 AND 2002*1. Nature of operations and background information:

Business activities. MCM Financial Corp. (the Company), offers consulting services to clients, ordinarily described as "money management." The Company does not hold funds or securities for customers. The Company operates primarily in Southern Nevada; however, its future operations could be affected by adverse changes in economic conditions in the local area or in the United States, in general, including the effects of war.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies:

Use of estimates. Timely preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates that affect reported amounts, some of which may require revision in future periods.

Income taxes. The Corporation, with the consent of its sole stockholder, has elected to have its income taxed as an "S corporation" and accordingly, in lieu of corporation income taxes, the stockholder is taxed on the Corporation's income or loss. Therefore, these statements do not include any provision for corporate income taxes or benefits.

Revenue recognition. Revenues for management fees are recognized when earned based upon commission percentages established by various agreements applied to assets contained in those funds.

3. Net capital requirements:

The Company is subject to the net capital provisions of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. The rules adopted by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission prohibit a member from engaging in securities transactions if the ratio of its aggregate indebtedness to net capital, as defined, exceeds 10 to 1, or if its net capital, as defined, falls below a specified level. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. The net capital ratio of the Company was .9 to 1 and 0 to 1 at December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The Company's net capital was $6,699 and $16,853 at December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Therefore, the Company was in compliance with these requirements.

4. Related party transactions:

Use of the Company's premises are provided to it by a company affiliated through common ownership at no cost and without accounting recognition to the Company.

5. Supplemental cash flow information:

	2003	2002
Reconciliation of net income (loss) to net cash used in operating activities
Net income (loss)	$ (11,156)	$ 5,846

SCHEDULE II
COMPUTATION FOR DETERMINATION OF RESERVE REQUIREMENTS

Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission:

The Company is exempt from this requirement under paragraph (k)(2) of this Rule.

SCHEDULE III
INFORMATION RELATING TO POSSESSION OR CONTROL REQUIREMENTS

Information Relating to Possession or Control Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission:

The Company is exempt from this requirement since it does not perform clearing services or carry customer accounts. The Company does not routinely receive customer funds or securities.

SCHEDULE IV
SCHEDULE OF SEGREGATION REQUIREMENTS AND FUNDS IN SEGREGATION

Schedule of Segregation Requirements and Funds in Segregation for Customers' Regulated Commodity Futures and Options Accounts Under Regulation 1.16 of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission:

The Company does not broker or deal commodity futures or options and is, therefore, exempt from this requirement.

Board of Directors
MCM Financial Corp.
Las Vegas, Nevada

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of MCM Financial Corp. (the Company), for the year ended December 31, 2003, we considered its internal control in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2003, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers, the National Securities Clearing Corporation, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
